

Henry Clay Crossword

www.Puzzle-Maker.com

ACROSS

- 2 Both sides give up a little and gain a little
- 3 Henry Clay fought Humphrey Marshall and John Randolph in this type of match
- 5 Henry Clay's Great Granddaughter who was considered the best woman orator in America and fought for women's right to vote.
- 7 Women's right to vote, which was granted in the 19th Amendment.
- 9 Henry was considered the protector of America's industry because he supported the _____, which taxed foreign goods.
- 10 The Henry Clay Estate
- 15 The room Henry Used like a home office for his three careers
- 16 Henry served as _____ in John Quincy Adams' cabinet.
- 17 Henry's careers included being a statesman, lawyer and _____.

DOWN

- 1 Henry was a member of and became president of the American _____, which made Liberia a colony for settlement by free African Americans during the 19th century.
- 3 The Clay Family was _____ over the issue of Civil War, as were many Kentuckians.
- 4 Henry Clay died of _____, a lung disease that killed many until the advent of antibiotics.
- 6 Henry Clay was called father of this economic policy that included transportation, the bank and tariffs.
- 8 Henry Clay believed slave states should adopt a policy of gradual _____.
- 11 Henry Clay's top political goal was to _____ the Union.
- 12 Ashland is named after _____ that Henry found on the property.
- 13 Though Henry Clay was a War Hawk, the signed the Treaty of _____, ending the War of 1812.
- 14 Tour Guide

Henry Clay Crossword

